ART FAIR AT THE CARIBBEAN MARKETPLACE

Northeast Second Avenue Partnership (NE2P), invites you to participate in Art Beat Miami during Miami Art Week (Art Basel Miami Beach), November 30th to December 4th located inside the Caribbean Marketplace at the Little Haiti Cultural Center.

Art Basel Miami Beach has become an international mecca for art lovers, attracting visitors from across the globe. In its 14th year, this art fair showcases artwork and galleries from countries all over the world drawing more than 70,000 visitors each year. Art Basel acts as a catalyst, spawning special exhibitions at museums and galleries across the city. Satellite locations, including Miami Beach, Midtown, the Design District and Wynwood, transform the city into a dense and dynamic cultural hub for the week.

ART FAIR AT THE CARIBBEAN MARKETPLACE

In the heart of Little Haiti, NE2P will transform the iconic Caribbean Marketplace into a pop-up gallery showcasing the works of more than 20 emerging and renowned local and international artists.

Art Beat Miami will launch on Wednesday, November 30th, with an opening reception celebrating a one of a kind experience of visual art, music and food inspired by the people and culture of Haiti.

The Art Beat Miami Art Fair will open daily from 12:00 pm to 8:00 pm with musical performances, LIVE art, conversations with artists, and food.

Our Conversations With series, which offers a unique opportunity to share in the world and inspiration of exhibiting artists and muralists, will be held at the Caribbean Marketplace, as well as in several galleries and venues throughout Little Haiti.

In its second year, Art Beat Miami will showcase the best works across a variety of mediums including paintings, sculptures, drawings, fine art, installation and photographs. The focus will be on local artists, but will also feature a component with internationally renowned artists. In 2014, Art Beat Miami drew more than 800 attendees during the three-day festival.

CELEBRITY BRUNCH WITH CHEF CREOLE AND FRIENDS

Saturday, December 3rd is a food explosion featuring a Celebrity Brunch hosted by beloved chef and restaurateur, Wilkinson Sejour, better known as "Chef Creole." He is the proud owner and operator of five Chef Creole restaurants throughout Miami. He has fused Caribbean and Creole flavors in a way that has made his restaurants popular both locally and nationally.

His client list reads like a who's who in the entertainment industry, and includes Dwayne Wade, Magic Johnson, David Sanborn, Jay-Z, Rick Ross and Pitbull.

Chef Creole has been featured on the Travel Channel, Gourmet Magazine, Anthony Bourdain's No Reservations, 48 Hours series, NBC6, Channel 10, and in the Miami Herald and Miami Times.
